

I am commenting on the FCC's decision to possibly allow Broadband over Powerlines (BPL). As a licensed ham radio operator, and former radio operator in the U.S. Army, I have a vast knowledge of radio frequency interference and how it can interact with commercial and residential electronics, law enforcement equipment, medical equipment, etc

BPL should not be allowed to reside in the 1.7-80 MHz frequency spectrum.